

Janet C. Hovorka

P.O. Box 1080 Pleasant Grove, Utah 84062

(801)836-6748 janet@generationmaps.com

EXPERIENCE

Co-Owner, Development Manager, Generation Maps, 2004 to present.

Founded and developed genealogy chart printing company, managing 4 employees, running all development and marketing practices including web development, product development, business practices, print and conference advertising, lecturing, business partnerships.

Librarian, Mountainville Academy Charter School and John Hancock Charter School, 2004 to 2008.

Responsible for developing two charter school libraries including budget, facilities, curriculum development and teaching, collection selection and evaluation, database development. Developed and managed volunteer program. Taught technology and library courses.

Lead Reference Librarian, Salt Lake Community College, 1995 to 1997.

Managed the Reference Department of the Markosian Library (eight reference librarians). Developed and taught library instruction and internet courses for faculty and students. Served on various state and college committees. Managed the library in absence of the Library Director and vice directors.

Researcher, Foundation for Ancient Research and Mormon Studies, 1989 to 1995.

Editing and Research. Developed interactive software for education and research in the Middle East. Research assistance for publications of the Collected Works of Hugh Nibley.

Instructor, Brigham Young University, 1992 to 1994.

Developed and taught courses in Ancient Scripture.

Reference Assistant, Harold B. Lee Library, BYU, 1991-1992, 1994.

Provided reference assistance to faculty and students. Developed research projects.

Researcher, Department of Ancient Studies, Professor Victor Ludlow, 1988-1992.

Assisted in editing and research.

Instructor, Software Developer, Bakery Help, BYU Jerusalem Center, Kibbutz Kfar HaChosh, 1990 to 1991.

Developed educational software for student instruction, taught and received language instruction, performed bakery work.

SKILLS

Computer: Numerous IBM programs including genealogy, design, word-processing, spreadsheet and accounting, presentation, internet development. Broad experience with internet and library databases.

Demonstrated Organizational, Management, Problem Solving and Teaching skills.

EDUCATION

Masters Degree: Library and Information Science
Brigham Young University, Provo, Utah 1993.

B.S. Degree: Near Eastern Studies
Brigham Young University, Provo, Utah 1990

References and Additional Job Experience Upon Request.